ORDER

Filed January 27, 2004

Before: William C. Canby, Jr. and Pamela Ann Rymer,
Circuit Judges, and William O. Bertelsman,
Senior District Judge.*

This case became moot after our opinion was published, Southwest Center for Biological Diversity v. United States Forest Service, 307 F.3d 964 (9th Cir. 2002), but while proceedings were on-going and before the mandate was issued. We exercise our discretion to withdraw the opinion. However, we see no reason to remand for the district court to consider whether its decision should be vacated.

DISMISSED AS MOOT.

*Honorable William O. Bertelsman, Senior United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Kentucky, sitting by designation.
